

Islamic Foundation North

Ethics Committee

The Islamic Foundation North Ethics Committee consists of five voting members, including its chairperson. The Recorder, Investigator, Coordinator, and Negotiator. The Ethics Committee may seek advice from religious committee and IFN lawyer on religious and legal matters as may be needed. Any findings or recommendations or resolutions are the responsibility of the committee members. The committee is authorized to receive and deal with the IFN members' grievances in accordance with Grievance Procedures. If the sexual, physical, and financial conduct is criminal in nature, members must also report the incident to the local law enforcement agency.

Grievance Procedure

1. A member seeking to resolve a dispute first should meet and discuss the dispute with the Ethics Committee (EC) of IFN. The committee should attempt to resolve the dispute informally. The chairperson will make a reasonable effort to obtain the facts and information as needed and he/she will have the authority to resolve the complaint if it involves actions within the chairperson's authority and responsibility in keeping with IFN Sexual harassment, Misconduct and Conflict of interest policy. Within two weeks after the meeting with the member, the chairperson shall provide to the committee members a written response to the issue raised, consistent with IFN policy. The chairperson also will apprise the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees of the dispute if it is not resolved at this step.
2. Initiation of the Grievance- If the person is dissatisfied with the outcome of Step 1, the person shall hand-deliver his/her written grievance on Code of Conduct form to the Ethics Committee.
3. Eligibility Determination - The committee chair will determine whether the grievance is an "Eligible Complaint" qualified for hearing in accordance with the established policies of IFN.
4. Witnesses and Documents - At least two weeks before the hearing, the parties shall provide the committee a written list of witnesses they wish to testify and a copy of proof they wish to present to the committee at the time of hearing.
5. The Hearing- The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:
The parties are entitled to be present during the hearing. All committee members shall be present during the entire hearings. The Ethics Committee will compile a final report.
6. The committee shall issue a written report of its findings of facts and recommendations for resolution of the grievance. The chair shall send a copy of the report to the Executive Committee and the Board.
