To Whom It May Concern

Islamic Foundation North (IFN) supports families in the faith education of their children, especially through religious counseling, guidance, and prayer. Sunday School of IFN promoted the dignity of human life and non violence in the home and in the culture. The aim of the school is to educate the children in the sanctity of human life and existence.

Rubina Khan was a Director of Curriculum Development for two years at IFN. She is enthusiastic about her work and cause. She revised the curriculum to meet the growing demands of the community. She developed the curricula exceeding the mere understanding of the lists of the prescribed content and aimed at attaining quality education for all simultaneous promoting the development of quality curricula. She is very proactive in raising the academic standards in order to achieve excellence in areas of religious education.

The program curriculum provides a strong core of beliefs in religious education and theology. She worked hard to set goal and learning outcomes for every grade level. The learning outcomes directly supported the learning aspects in terms of what a students' needs to be able to do or understand and has helped teachers with effective lesson plans and classroom instruction. She is a person of passion and dedication and a source of inspiration for the teaching community of our Sunday School. She is also serving in the Education Committee of IFN community strongly committed to excellence and high standards. She is an asset to our community and I wish her all success.

Please do not hesitate to call me at 847-456-7742, if you have any specific questions.

Sincerely,

Irshad Khan
IFN President
